LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and about the City.

MATINEES at both theatres to-day.

ORFÈRE House this evening—"Humpty Dumpty."

THE GRAND this evening—Rogers Bros' Specialty Company.

YESTERDAY was Candlemas day, and appropriate services were held in all the Catholic churches.

SEVERAL rooms of Clay school had to be dismissed again yesterday because the building could not be properly heated.

CITY CLERK THORNER yesterday received a fine lot of gold fish and carp from the United States fish commissioner at Washington.

AMELIA JOHNSON was yesterday appointed administratrix of the estate of George W. Johnson, deceased, and gave bond in $100, with S. O. Boyce as surety.

GEORGE TAPPE and Joseph Drieze were before Squire Gillespy last evening charged by John Wenzel with assault. A long hearing was held and a cloud of witnesses was present.

THE Reymann Brewing Company put a force of men to work yesterday to cut ice out of the creek at the head of Seventeenth street. The ice is of pretty good thickness and fair quality.

MR. G. HOG certainly saw his shadow yesterday, and this affords a fine opportunity to see what kind of a weather prophet he is. Six weeks of bad weather is what is to be expected.

YESTERDAY afternoon a Baltimore & Ohio car was run in on the switch at the Elm Grove depot. The car was loaded with coke and it was too long to make the turn. It crashed into the sheds, doing a little damage.

RAIN fell several times last night, and one shower about 11 o'clock was pretty hard. The streets where the slush was still left will be in terrible condition this morning, unless enough rain falls to wash them clean.

THE sale of the stock of pictures, frames, mirrors, easels, etc., of M. L. Frank will begin at 10 a. m. to-day by the assignee, S. O. Boyce, at the store, 1413 Market street, and the sale will be continued from day to day until all the stock is disposed of.

ROGERS BROS.' fun makers, the specialty company now playing at the Grand, is one of the best seen here for a long time. The house was packed with an enthusiastic audience again last night. A matinee will be given to-day and the engagement will conclude this evening.

TO-morrow evening at St. Matthew's church memorial services will be held by Wheeling and Upchurch lodges of the A. O. U. W. Rev. Dr. Swope will preach a special sermon, and on this occasion the new vested choir of forty men and boys will sing for the first time.

"THE HUB" FIRM CHANGES.

Mr. Sonneborn Takes a Partner Owing to Increased Business.

Yesterday a change of the firm operating the Hub clothing store was made. Mr. M. Sonneborn, who entered into the clothing business in Wheeling two and a half years ago, took in as a partner Mr. S. S. Fridenberg, of Philadelphia. In the time Mr. Sonneborn has been in business in Wheeling he has built up an enviable trade, one of the best in the community, and the growth of the business has practically compelled him to share it with a partner. Mr. Fridenberg is a genial man and a good business man as well, and this accession to Wheeling mercantile ranks will be a welcome addition. "The Hub" will still be the style of the establishment, and the new firm will have the heartiest wishes for its continued and increasing success.

The Kelly Will Case.

The motion for a new trial in the Michael Kelly will contest case will be argued to-day before Judge Campbell, of the circuit court. Mr. H. M. Russell, of counsel for the proponents, has been sick, but was able to be out again yesterday, and it was thought yesterday that he would be able to take part in the discussion to-day. Speculation is rife as to the result.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows: February 2 by John C. Palmer, jr., special commissioner, to H. W. Schrebe, for $2,075, lot 9 in block 2 of Hydziger's addition.

January 1 by George W. Hogg and wife to George and Charles Saidler, for $2,000, a tract of land on Short Creek, in Richland district, containing 17.09 acres.

City Tax Collections.

City Collector Shaffer reported to Receiver Kindelberger yesterday the following amounts of city taxes collected in the past week:

General fund.....$1,999.93

Ten cent levy.....281.87

Total.....$2,281.80

Mrs. Hart's School for Young Ladies.

The spring term of this school began February 1. New classes have been formed and a number of new pupils enrolled. This school is in its fourth year and its success is the promise of a permanent establishment.

ELOPERS CAUGHT HERE.

A Huntington Couple Arrested by the Police Yesterday.

THEY WERE LIVING ON THE ISLAND

As Man and Wife First and then as Brother and Sister—He had Deserted his Wife and she her Husband at Huntington—The Woman had a Bright Little Daughter with her.

Some time ago C. C. Smith, a solicitor of the Provident Life Insurance Company at Huntington, came to this city, leaving his wife and two children. Shortly after Mrs. Trevor Hall also came here from there, deserting her husband and little son, but bringing a bright ten-year-old daughter with her. When Smith arrived here he rented a house on South Wabash street, on the Island, and said his wife would be here in a few days. Mrs. Hall and her daughter soon joined him, but he then told people she was his sister.

The Huntington officials found out that the couple had come here and a letter was received some time ago by Chief of Police McNichol, enclosing their photographs. Smith was shown as a rather good looking young man, while Mrs. Hall was apparently older and not prepossessing.

Yesterday the couple were arrested at their house on the Island, on a warrant issued by Squire Gillespy, the charge being illegal cohabitation. They were detained in custody until last evening, when they gave bail for their appearance for a preliminary hearing to-day. Mr. Jenkins, general agent of the insurance company, became surety for them.

A telegram was received from Huntington last night, saying that Mr. Hall would be here this morning. It is said he is anxious to recover possession of his child, but does not care to have his wife return home.

Yesterday's Police Court.

Two of the six poles in police court yesterday morning for disorder were fined and sent to the hill in default of the cash, while the other four were dismissed. Mrs. Marcus, for her part in the same row, was fined $1 and costs. Henry Hois, a plain drunk, was dismissed. George Bowers, for disorderly conduct, was fined $20 and costs, and in default went up for thirty days.

They go Back to Jail.

Yesterday afternoon Iky Giffen and Bunt Sheeky were arraigned before Judge Jordan, in the criminal court, on a writ of habeas corpus sworn out by S. O. Boyce, their attorney. The judge heard the evidence as to the alleged stealing by these men of John Barnhardt's watch, and then refused to discharge them. He did, however, reduce their bail to $200 each. They could not give bond, and were remanded to jail for the next grand jury.

THE WORK OF RELIEF.

Only a Few Donations Yesterday—The Committee Disappointed.

Yesterday Treasurer Dobbins, of the relief committee, received two cash donations from persons who did not want their names known. One was $95 and the other $20. Besides these $98 25 additional was turned over to him as part of the INTELLIGENCER relief fund, and Secretary Hocking collected $227 from the city gas board on work orders which had been turned in for goods.

The committee is very greatly disappointed that more of those who are entirely able to contribute to the cause and to whom letters have been addressed soliciting donations have not responded.

At the store yesterday the only donations received were 100 loaves of bread from Stoehr & Schenepf, two dozen cakes of toilet soap from an unknown, and ten pounds of scrap tobacco from the West Virginia Tobacco Company.

Only four or five orders were filled yesterday. Some of these were emergency orders and some work tickets. To-day the store will be open to fill charity orders, from 9 a. m. to 12 o'clock, and from 1 to 5 p. m.

The Modern Invalid

Has tastes medicinally, in keeping with other luxuries. A remedy must be pleasantly acceptable in form, purely wholesome in composition, truly beneficial in effect and entirely free from every objectionable quality. If really ill he consults a physician; if constipated he uses the gentle family laxative Syrup of Figs.

THOSE DELICIOUS LUNCHES.

Something About the Meals Served at the Masonic Cafes.

The lunches served each day from 12 to 2 p. m. at the Masonic Temple comprise delicious stewed oysters, coffee, and everything else that goes to make up an appetizing meal. Separate bills of fare are provided for lunch and supper, and each meal is given as much care and attention as it is possible for Wheeling's most notable housewives to bestow.

TAKE the Baltimore & Ohio excursion to Washington, D. C., and Baltimore Thursday, February 8. Round trip $10. Tickets good ten days. Through sleeper from Wheeling on the 5:35 p. m. train.

Both in One.

The population should surely have enough laughter on hand for months after Keley and Kennedy in the "The Flying Vulture" gets through with them.
